

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

DDD

Complete Sacred Music
for Five VoicesPlaying
Time:
68'12"

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

1	Illumina faciem tuam	(4:23)	10	Maria mater gratiae	(3:56)
2	Deus refugium et virtus	(2:23)	11	Laboravi in gemitu meo	(4:18)
3	Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam	(2:43)	12	Ave dulcissima Maria	(4:37)
4	Tribulationem et dolorem	(4:55)	13	Domine ne despicias	(2:10)
5	Tribularer si nescirem	(3:51)	14	Peccantem me quotidie	(5:23)
6	Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae	(2:15)	15	Sancti Spiritus Domine	(2:04)
7	O Crux benedicta	(4:16)	16	Hei mihi Domine	(3:42)
8	O vos omnes	(3:55)	17	Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem	(2:47)
9	Dignare me laudare te	(1:59)	18	Reminiscere miserationum tuarum	(3:53)
			19	Ave Regina coelorum	(4:06)

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford

from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,

by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

NAXOS

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
DISTRIBUTED BY: MVD MUSIC AND VIDEO DISTRIBUTION GmbH,
OBERWEG 2/IC HALLE V-D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

DDD

Playing
Time:
68'12"Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

1	Illumina faciem tuam	(4:23)	10	Maria mater gratiae	(3:56)
2	Deus refugium et virtus	(2:23)	11	Laboravi in gemitu meo	(4:18)
3	Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam	(2:43)	12	Ave dulcissima Maria	(4:37)
4	Tribulationem et dolorem	(4:55)	13	Domine ne despicias	(2:10)
5	Tribularer si nescirem	(3:51)	14	Peccantem me quotidie	(5:23)
6	Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae	(2:15)	15	Sancti Spiritus Domine	(2:04)
7	O Crux benedicta	(4:16)	16	Hei mihi Domine	(3:42)
8	O vos omnes	(3:55)	17	Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem	(2:47)
9	Dignare me laudare te	(1:59)	18	Reminiscere miserationum tuarum	(3:53)
			19	Ave Regina coelorum	(4:06)

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford

from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,

by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

NAXOS

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
DISTRIBUTED BY: MVD MUSIC AND VIDEO DISTRIBUTION GmbH,
OBERWEG 2/IC HALLE V-D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

NAXOS

Early Music • Alte Musik

DDD
8.550742

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata
Jeremy Summery, Conductor

Carlo Gesualdo (c.1561 - 1613)

Sacrarum Cantionum Liber Primus [5 voices] (1603)

Don Carlo Gesualdo, Prince of Venosa, Count of Conza, was a murderer; he was also one of the most intriguing composers of his generation. These two statements are necessarily interrelated: the received image of a tortured soul writing idiosyncratic music in the aftermath of his wife's homicide is a powerful one. But to suggest that Gesualdo's evident state of mental unbalance affected his fundamental musical competence is both misleading and unfair.

Gesualdo murdered his wife and her lover in cold blood in 1590. The Prince's public display of the corpses represents the behaviour of a man who was convinced by the morality of his action. When Gesualdo remarried four years later his declining mental state drove his second wife to attempt divorce several times, albeit unsuccessfully. These are the facts that have led some critics to arrive at an unflattering assessment of Gesualdo's artistic achievements. It is regularly asserted that the music is technically unsound and that the composer's renown depends more on a colourful biography than on a legacy of great music. And while Gesualdo's fame will always rely on the documentation of his wife's murder, it is a poor musician who is incapable of recognizing the consistency and competence of Gesualdo's surviving works.

The nineteen five-voice motets in the Sacrae Cantiones represent a mixture of styles. Some are unashamedly madrigalian designed for performance by solo voices whereas others are every bit as expansive as any late-Renaissance examples of the genre. Each motet bears the obvious stamp of Gesualdo's individual musical language; even those motets that make minimal use of chromaticism exhibit unusual part-writing which is at best faintly bizarre and at worst baffling. Gesualdo's choice of texts within the Sacrae Cantiones is similarly self-indulgent favouring motets whose themes embrace sin, death, and guilt. The calculated use of disturbing chromatic sidesteps at phrases such as 'misere mei' (have mercy on me), 'lacrimis meis' (my tears), and 'dolor meus' (my sorrow) is self-piteous in the extreme.

It is difficult therefore to empathize with all of Gesualdo's work, peppered as it is with self-conscious mannerisms that are the result of psychological self-torture: it is easy to be blinded by the more superficial elements of the music. But Gesualdo's basic style is as competent as that of Palestrina or Monteverdi; without a sound contrapuntal technique the more extreme gestures would not be as effective as they undoubtedly are. Any early-Baroque composer would surely have been proud to have written the motets 'Peccantem me', 'Laboravi', or 'O vos omnes', while the still life 'O crux benedicta' is an unparalleled model of late-Renaissance fluency.

Oxford Camerata

The Oxford Camerata was formed by Jeremy Summerly in order to meet the growing demand for choral groups specializing in music from the Renaissance era. It has since expanded its repertoire to include music from the medieval period to the present day using instrumentalists where necessary. The Camerata has made several recordings for Naxos, and future plans include discs of music by Lassus, Tye, and Fauré.

Singers:

Deborah Mackay	Rebecca Outram
Carys-Anne Lane	Janet McMullin
Andrew Olleson	Robin Blaze
James Gilchrist	Philip Cave
Michael McCarthy	Jonathan Arnold
Julian Smallbones	Julian Walker

Jeremy Summerly

Jeremy Summerly was a choral scholar at New College, Oxford from where he graduated with First Class Honours in 1982. For the next seven years he worked as a Studio Manager with BBC Radio and it was during this time that he founded the Oxford Camerata. In 1989 he left the BBC in order to join the Royal Academy of Music as a lecturer in the department of Academic Studies and in 1990 he was appointed conductor of Schola Cantorum of Oxford. He has recently signed a long-term contract with Naxos to record a variety of music with the Oxford Camerata and Schola Cantorum of Oxford.

COMPACT
DISC
DIGITAL AUDIO

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices

DDD

Playing
Time:
68'12"

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

-
- |  |        |   |        |
|--|--------|---|--------|
| [1] Illumina faciem tuam              | (4:23) | [10] Maria mater gratiae             | (3:56) |
| [2] Deus refugium et virtus           | (2:23) | [11] Laboravi in gemitu meo          | (4:18) |
| [3] Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam    | (2:43) | [12] Ave dulcissima Maria            | (4:37) |
| [4] Tribulationem et dolorem          | (4:55) | [13] Domine ne despicias             | (2:10) |
| [5] Tribularer si nescirem            | (3:51) | [14] Peccantem me quotidie           | (5:23) |
| [6] Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae | (2:15) | [15] Sancti Spiritus Domine          | (2:04) |
| [7] O Crux benedicta                  | (4:16) | [16] Hei mihi Domine                 | (3:42) |
| [8] O vos omnes                       | (3:55) | [17] Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem      | (2:47) |
| [9] Dignare me laudare te             | (1:59) | [18] Reminiscere miserationum tuarum | (3:53) |
|  |        | [19] Ave Regina coelorum             | (4:06) |
-

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford
from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,
by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.

© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
OBERWEG 2/IC-HALLE V, D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

Compact Disc for Five Voices
8.550742

9158

NAXOS

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

DDD

Complete Sacred Music
for Five VoicesPlaying
Time:
68'12"

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

1	Illumina faciem tuam	(4:23)	10	Maria mater gratiae	(3:56)
2	Deus refugium et virtus	(2:23)	11	Laboravi in gemitu meo	(4:18)
3	Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam	(2:43)	12	Ave dulcissima Maria	(4:37)
4	Tribulationem et dolorem	(4:55)	13	Domine ne despicias	(2:10)
5	Tribularer si nescirem	(3:51)	14	Peccantem me quotidie	(5:23)
6	Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae	(2:15)	15	Sancti Spiritus Domine	(2:04)
7	O Crux benedicta	(4:16)	16	Hei mihi Domine	(3:42)
8	O vos omnes	(3:55)	17	Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem	(2:47)
9	Dignare me laudare te	(1:59)	18	Reminiscere miserationum tuarum	(3:53)
			19	Ave Regina coelorum	(4:06)

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford

from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,

by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

NAXOS

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
DISTRIBUTED BY: MVD MUSIC AND VIDEO DISTRIBUTION GmbH,
OBERWEG 2/IC HALLE V-D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

DDD

Playing
Time:
68'12"Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

1	Illumina faciem tuam	(4:23)	10	Maria mater gratiae	(3:56)
2	Deus refugium et virtus	(2:23)	11	Laboravi in gemitu meo	(4:18)
3	Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam	(2:43)	12	Ave dulcissima Maria	(4:37)
4	Tribulationem et dolorem	(4:55)	13	Domine ne despicias	(2:10)
5	Tribularer si nescirem	(3:51)	14	Peccantem me quotidie	(5:23)
6	Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae	(2:15)	15	Sancti Spiritus Domine	(2:04)
7	O Crux benedicta	(4:16)	16	Hei mihi Domine	(3:42)
8	O vos omnes	(3:55)	17	Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem	(2:47)
9	Dignare me laudare te	(1:59)	18	Reminiscere miserationum tuarum	(3:53)
			19	Ave Regina coelorum	(4:06)

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford

from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,

by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

NAXOS

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
DISTRIBUTED BY: MVD MUSIC AND VIDEO DISTRIBUTION GmbH,
OBERWEG 2/IC HALLE V-D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

NAXOS

Early Music • Alte Musik

DDD
8.550742

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata
Jeremy Summery, Conductor

Carlo Gesualdo (c.1561 - 1613)

Sacrarum Cantionum Liber Primus [5 voices] (1603)

Don Carlo Gesualdo, Prince of Venosa, Count of Conza, was a murderer; he was also one of the most intriguing composers of his generation. These two statements are necessarily interrelated: the received image of a tortured soul writing idiosyncratic music in the aftermath of his wife's homicide is a powerful one. But to suggest that Gesualdo's evident state of mental unbalance affected his fundamental musical competence is both misleading and unfair.

Gesualdo murdered his wife and her lover in cold blood in 1590. The Prince's public display of the corpses represents the behaviour of a man who was convinced by the morality of his action. When Gesualdo remarried four years later his declining mental state drove his second wife to attempt divorce several times, albeit unsuccessfully. These are the facts that have led some critics to arrive at an unflattering assessment of Gesualdo's artistic achievements. It is regularly asserted that the music is technically unsound and that the composer's renown depends more on a colourful biography than on a legacy of great music. And while Gesualdo's fame will always rely on the documentation of his wife's murder, it is a poor musician who is incapable of recognizing the consistency and competence of Gesualdo's surviving works.

The nineteen five-voice motets in the Sacrae Cantiones represent a mixture of styles. Some are unashamedly madrigalian designed for performance by solo voices whereas others are every bit as expansive as any late-Renaissance examples of the genre. Each motet bears the obvious stamp of Gesualdo's individual musical language; even those motets that make minimal use of chromaticism exhibit unusual part-writing which is at best faintly bizarre and at worst baffling. Gesualdo's choice of texts within the Sacrae Cantiones is similarly self-indulgent favouring motets whose themes embrace sin, death, and guilt. The calculated use of disturbing chromatic sidesteps at phrases such as 'miserere mei' (have mercy on me), 'lacrimis meis' (my tears), and 'dolor meus' (my sorrow) is self-piteous in the extreme.

It is difficult therefore to empathize with all of Gesualdo's work, peppered as it is with self-conscious mannerisms that are the result of psychological self-torture: it is easy to be blinded by the more superficial elements of the music. But Gesualdo's basic style is as competent as that of Palestrina or Monteverdi; without a sound contrapuntal technique the more extreme gestures would not be as effective as they undoubtedly are. Any early-Baroque composer would surely have been proud to have written the motets 'Peccantem me', 'Laboravi', or 'O vos omnes', while the still life 'O crux benedicta' is an unparalleled model of late-Renaissance fluency.

Oxford Camerata

The Oxford Camerata was formed by Jeremy Summerly in order to meet the growing demand for choral groups specializing in music from the Renaissance era. It has since expanded its repertoire to include music from the medieval period to the present day using instrumentalists where necessary. The Camerata has made several recordings for Naxos, and future plans include discs of music by Lassus, Tye, and Fauré.

Singers:

Deborah Mackay	Rebecca Outram
Carys-Anne Lane	Janet McMullin
Andrew Olleson	Robin Blaze
James Gilchrist	Philip Cave
Michael McCarthy	Jonathan Arnold
Julian Smallbones	Julian Walker

Jeremy Summerly

Jeremy Summerly was a choral scholar at New College, Oxford from where he graduated with First Class Honours in 1982. For the next seven years he worked as a Studio Manager with BBC Radio and it was during this time that he founded the Oxford Camerata. In 1989 he left the BBC in order to join the Royal Academy of Music as a lecturer in the department of Academic Studies and in 1990 he was appointed conductor of Schola Cantorum of Oxford. He has recently signed a long-term contract with Naxos to record a variety of music with the Oxford Camerata and Schola Cantorum of Oxford.

COMPACT
DISC
DIGITAL AUDIO

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices

DDD

Playing
Time:
68'12"

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summery, Conductor

-
- |  |        |   |        |
|--|--------|---|--------|
| [1] Illumina faciem tuam              | (4:23) | [10] Maria mater gratiae             | (3:56) |
| [2] Deus refugium et virtus           | (2:23) | [11] Laboravi in gemitu meo          | (4:18) |
| [3] Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam    | (2:43) | [12] Ave dulcissima Maria            | (4:37) |
| [4] Tribulationem et dolorem          | (4:55) | [13] Domine ne despicias             | (2:10) |
| [5] Tribularer si nescirem            | (3:51) | [14] Peccantem me quotidie           | (5:23) |
| [6] Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae | (2:15) | [15] Sancti Spiritus Domine          | (2:04) |
| [7] O Crux benedicta                  | (4:16) | [16] Hei mihi Domine                 | (3:42) |
| [8] O vos omnes                       | (3:55) | [17] Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem      | (2:47) |
| [9] Dignare me laudare te             | (1:59) | [18] Reminiscere miserationum tuarum | (3:53) |
|  |        | [19] Ave Regina coelorum             | (4:06) |
-

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford
from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,
by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summery

4 891030 507425

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.

© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
OBERWEG 2/IC-HALLE V, D-82008 UNTERRACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.

Compact Disc for Five Voices
8.550742

9158

NAXOS

GESUALDO: Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices 8.550742

Early Music • Alte Musik

DDD
8.550742

GESUALDO
Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata
Jeremy Summerly, Conductor

Carlo Gesualdo (c.1561 - 1613)*Sacrarum Cantionum Liber Primus [5 voices] (1603)

Don Carlo Gesualdo, Prince of Venosa, Count of Conza, was a murderer; he was also one of the most intriguing composers of his generation. These two statements are necessarily interrelated: the received image of a tortured soul writing idiosyncratic music in the aftermath of his wife's homicide is a powerful one. But to suggest that Gesualdo's evident state of mental unbalance affected his fundamental musical competence is both misleading and unfair.

Gesualdo murdered his wife and her lover in cold blood in 1590. The Prince's public display of the corpses represents the behaviour of a man who was convinced by the morality of his action. When Gesualdo remarried four years later his declining mental state drove his second wife to attempt divorce several times, albeit unsuccessfully. These are the facts that have led some critics to arrive at an unflattering assessment of Gesualdo's artistic achievements. It is regularly asserted that the music is technically unsound and that the composer's renown depends more on a colourful biography than on a legacy of great music. And while Gesualdo's fame will always rely on the documentation of his wife's murder, it is a poor musician who is incapable of recognizing the consistency and competence of Gesualdo's surviving works.

The nineteen five-voice motets in the Sacrae Cantiones represent a mixture of styles. Some are unashamedly madrigalian designed for performance by solo voices whereas others are every bit as expansive as any late-Renaissance examples of the genre. Each motet bears the obvious stamp of Gesualdo's individual musical language; even those motets that make minimal use of chromaticism exhibit unusual part-writing which is at best faintly bizarre and at worst baffling. Gesualdo's choice of texts within the Sacrae Cantiones is similarly self-indulgent favouring motets whose themes embrace sin, death, and guilt. The calculated use of disturbing chromatic sidesteps at phrases such as 'miserere mei' (have mercy on me), 'lacrimis meis' (my tears), and 'dolor meus' (my sorrow) is self-piteous in the extreme.

8.550742

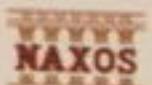

It is difficult therefore to empathize with all of Gesualdo's work, peppered as it is with self-conscious mannerisms that are the result of psychological self-torture: it is easy to be blinded by the more superficial elements of the music. But Gesualdo's basic style is as competent as that of Palestrina or Monteverdi; without a sound contrapuntal technique the more extreme gestures would not be as effective as they undoubtedly are. Any early-Baroque composer would surely have been proud to have written the motets 'Peccantem me', 'Laboravi', or 'O vos omnes', while the still life 'O crux benedicta' is an unparalleled model of late-Renaissance fluency.

2

3

8.550742

Early Music • Alte Musik

DDD
8.550742

Oxford Camerata

The Oxford Camerata was formed by Jeremy Summerly in order to meet the growing demand for choral groups specializing in music from the Renaissance era. It has since expanded its repertoire to include music from the medieval period to the present day using instrumentalists where necessary. The Camerata has made several recordings for Naxos, and future plans include discs of music by Lassus, Tye, and Fauré.

Singers:

Deborah Mackay	Rebecca Outram
Carys-Anne Lane	Janet McMullin
Andrew Oleson	Robin Blaze
James Gilchrist	Philip Cave
Michael McCarthy	Jonathan Arnold
Julian Smallbones	Julian Walker

Jeremy Summerly

Jeremy Summerly was a choral scholar at New College, Oxford from where he graduated with First Class Honours in 1982. For the next seven years he worked as a Studio Manager with BBC Radio and it was during this time that he founded the Oxford Camerata. In 1989 he left the BBC in order to join the Royal Academy of Music as a lecturer in the department of Academic Studies and in 1990 he was appointed conductor of Schola Cantorum of Oxford. He has recently signed a long-term contract with Naxos to record a variety of music with the Oxford Camerata and Schola Cantorum of Oxford.

8.550742

4

GESUALDO
Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

Oxford Camerata
Jeremy Summerly, Conductor

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music for Five Voices

© 1993 HNH International Ltd. © 1993 HNH International Ltd.

UNAUTHORISED

Illumina faciem tuam • Deus refugium et virtus • Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam • Tribulationem et dolorem
Tribularer si nescirem • Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae • O Crux benedicta • O vos omnes
Dignare me laudare te • Maria mater gratiae • Laboravi in gemitu meo • Ave dulcissima Maria
Domine ne despicias • Peccantem me quotidie • Sancti Spiritus Domine • Hei mihi Domine
Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem • Reminiscere miserationum tuarum • Ave Regina coelorum

Oxford Camerata
Jeremy Summerly, Conductor

8.550742

DDD

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.

8.550742

STEREO

GESUALDO

Complete Sacred Music
for Five Voices

DDD

Playing
Time:
68'12"

Oxford Camerata

Jeremy Summerly, Conductor

1	Illumina faciem tuam	(4:23)	10	Maria mater gratiae	(3:56)
2	Deus refugium et virtus	(2:23)	11	Laboravi in gemitu meo	(4:18)
3	Exaudi Deus deprecationem meam	(2:43)	12	Ave dulcissima Maria	(4:37)
4	Tribulationem et dolorem	(4:55)	13	Domine ne despicias	(2:10)
5	Tribularer si nescirem	(3:51)	14	Peccantem me quotidie	(5:23)
6	Precibus et meritis beatae Mariae	(2:15)	15	Sancti Spiritus Domine	(2:04)
7	O Crux benedicta	(4:16)	16	Hei mihi Domine	(3:42)
8	O vos omnes	(3:55)	17	Venit lumen tuum Jerusalem	(2:47)
9	Dignare me laudare te	(1:59)	18	Reminiscere miserationum tuarum	(3:53)
			19	Ave Regina coelorum	(4:06)

Recorded in the Chapel of Hertford College, Oxford
from 21st to 23rd September, 1992,
by kind permission of the Principal and Fellows.

Producer: Chris Craker

Engineer: Dave Harries

Music Notes: Jeremy Summerly

9158

Cover Painting: Restable of the Parlement of Paris

4 891030 507425

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE,
BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THIS COMPACT DISC PROHIBITED.
© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
© 1993 HNH International Ltd.
DISTRIBUTED BY: MVD MUSIC AND VIDEO DISTRIBUTION GmbH,
OBERWEG 21C-HALLE V, D-82008 UNTERHACHING, MUNICH, GERMANY.